With view on via del Corso , Piazza del Popolo, penthouse apartment in the very heart of the historical centre of town, just a few steps from Via del Corso(the longest shopping street in Rome) and Piazza Augusto Imperatore. The apartment is on the sixth floor (with lift) , decorated with extreme care. The living room is facing a little balcony on the same level. A little staircase leads to a second terrace above the apartment, which has an amazing view over town.

A Little corridor leads to the living room with blue and yellow silk curtains on the windows, matching the two sofas covered with blue and yellow silk. Antique furniture and paintings. Fire place. Over and around the fire place there's a library with a window on the ancient roofs and Piazza del Popolo.

The twin bed room has got antique pictures on the walls. Parquet floors.

Cotto fully equipped kitchen, with little window facing the roofs of town and Villa Borghese.

The bathroom is all marble made provided with tub and hand held shower.

The whole apartment has just been refurbished and decorated by an interior decorator.

The building has been recently restored as well.

It is a luxury apartment positioned in a great location, close to all the major sights, monuments and museums.
